"The money will go to zoos, national parks and anyone doing the groundwork with species' protection" said founder of the now international organiser Sharon Davson.

On Sunday, Wonderland was host to a star studded concert with television soap stars and local bands strutting their stuff.

The excited crowd watched Toni Pearen, Scott McRae and Brooke "Mikey" Anderson from E Street, The Village Girls, Melissa and Girlfriend roll out a tight, light hearted show.

The most polished of all however was Sydney suburb band Girlfriend whose lively dance routines were much appreciated.

The stars also took part in a fund-raiser for the protection of animals.

The "Artists for Life" organisation painted celebrity hands and set them to canvass. By doing this, the paintings can be auctioned off to raise money for the protection of endangered species.

Further activities for the "Artists for Life" includes an exhibition of all the artwork done so far. A car painted with endangered species will be among exhibits. The car will be unveiled by Penrith Mayor, Labor Alderman Tony Aquilina.

It was painted by Sharon Davson herself in dedication to all species in danger as well as all unknown species.

Sinclair Ford and Rooty Hill RSL are major sponsors for this event. It will be held at Sinclair Ford, Mulgoa Rd, Penrith, today from 6pm.
