Davson giveaway

SHARON Davson with Sir Jack Brabham.

GATTON born artist, Sharon Davson is in town this week to help celebrate the 50th Anniversary of Australia Theatre Week and Arts Festival founded by her mother Mrs Win Davson MBE, Honorary Director of Gatton Mercury Theatre.

Sharon has also just lunched of a major giveaway promotion leading-up to World Environment Day.

Readers have the opportunity to help Earth by visiting www.davsonworld.net.

That immediately qualifies e-card purchasers to go into the giveaway draw to win a unique work of art by Sharon Davson.

This beautifully framed work will incorporate an original autographed handprint by legendary Formula One World Champion Sir Jack Brabham.

Sir Jack Brabham is a Patron of Sharon Davson's creative and charitable ventures. His original autographed handprint is unique and valuable.

This valuable giveaway opportunity at www.davsonart.com closes at 7pm on Friday, June 19.

The winner will be officially announced at a press event at 10.30am on Tuesday, June 23.

The winner will be posted on the websites of all participating parties following that official public event on the Tuesday, June 23.

"Our Earth needs your help. The incredible and mostly volunteer organisations participating need your help," Sharon said.

For further information Sharon Davson can be contacted on sharon@davsonart.com.
