

Band of bronze

THE bride took her pagan vows in the eighth century BC and wore a band of bronze.

Almost 3000 years later, her wedding ring was the oldest piece in an exhibition of 500 rings at the Woollahra Antique Centre in October.

Northsiders who attended opening night included Elise Chanesman, Sharon Davson and Don Willesee.

Consul General for New Zealand Doug Law and his wife Marion with Mr and Mrs Bill Waterhouse of Kirribilli

Marian Clarke and Red Cross special events chairman Elise Chanesman of Crows Nest

Sharon Davson of Northbridge

Entertainer Jeannie Little and Don Willesee of Northbridge